

Chapter Twelve

1. Vocabulary: Words with Feelings

Draw a line matching the feeling to the character who experienced it in this chapter. Choose four matches. In your own words tell why the character was feeling that way.

uncomfortable	Lesharo
ashamed	Cécile
white with anger	Tonti
disapproval	the little boys
cautioned	Cadillac
hates	Edmond
loathed	Pere Nichole

2. Stomp Dancing:

The Stomp Dance was performed to welcome another tribe. Choose one activity:

—Choreograph the dance by adding to the steps suggested (pg.252); teach a group how to perform it; design a jingle bell garter pattern that your classmates can follow.

—Reuse found items to make rhythm rattlers like the shamans made out of turtle shells and pebbles.

3. Fancy Food Feast in a Fort: Everyone contributed to the wedding feast.

Using alliteration, create a fancy, six item menu that will tempt the tongue: eg. roast raccoon...

Create tongue-tickling tongue twisters to entertain the guests: Toine the terrible terrorized the turkey-trotting turkeys.

or

Fiddleheads are a Canadian delicacy fit to be served to visiting royalty. Find a recipe for: sauteed fiddleheads; fiddlehead soup; fiddlehead salad or ? Record it. Add to a class Fiddlehead Cookbook (or a bigger recipe book for Frontier Food).

4. A Debate of the Heart:

She cares deeply for Lesharo, but in her own fashion she cares for Edmond as well.

Partner with someone who agrees with your opinion. Your debate statement will be:

_____ is the right choice for Cécile.

Set up a Pro and Con chart for your character. In the agreed upon research time, record every positive factor and a proof statement from the book.: a) He will apologize. "Forgive me."
pg.250.

The Debate: Take turns giving facts (not opinions) to support your choice.

Challenge: After each fact, the other team may challenge it. You respond by sharing the supporting quotation and page number. Score: One point gained for each fact accepted. One point lost for a successfully challenged fact. One point gained for a falsely challenged fact.

The winners: will have the most points after all the facts are shared.
