

Chapter Seventeen

1. Vocabulary: A Spelling Survivor:

- a) Try to stump your friends by choosing a list of the eight hardest words in the whole book.
- b) The catch is you cannot challenge anyone else until you can spell them perfectly yourself.
- c) Try to guess what words your competitors will have on their lists, just ready to challenge you.
- d) A challenge must always have a witness who can refer to the proper spelling list.
- e) The Grand Spelling Survivor is the one who never loses a challenge (or wins the most).

2. And Now Adieu:

If you enjoyed this story's characters, reading the ending is like saying goodbye to good friends.

- a) Use a thesaurus to find and record six other words for good-bye.
- b) Use four in goodbye sentences to someone you know, ie. "Toodle loo," I said, to Great Aunt Tootsie.

3. The Medicine Bag:

The medicine bag was Lesharo's most precious possession. He gave it to Cécile. They gave it to Edmond.

- a) Describe the bag in a sentence
- b) What did it mean to Lesharo?
- c) Why did he give it to Cecile?
- d) Did anything spiritual or magical happen to the wearer of the bag?
- e) What do you think the bag will represent to Edmond?

4. A Sequel ???: a published work that continues the story.

If, as the author, you were going to create a sequel to Sister to the Wolf:

- a) Who would be the main characters?
- b) Where would the beginning be set?
- c) What would be the main problem or conflict?
- d) What would be the title?
