

Chapter Four

1. Vocabulary – Weaponry:

Pretend you are creating a page for a frontier catalogue. Choose four of these words tomahawk knife sheath bow arrow quivers.

Draw a picture of each weapon. Describe to potential customers how it works and how it will be useful in their new lives.

2. Dear Journal:

As if you were Cécile write a journal entry describing the night they spent by the rapids. Include Father and Lesharo. Make sure a reader could see, smell, hear and touch what she did.

3. A Safeguard in Times of Danger:

Soeur Adele gave Cécile a scapular (pg.64) to wear as a sign of her belief in the Mother of God. Use felt and yarn to create a scapular to symbolize your beliefs.

4. An Adventure Map:

Trace the book's map of the route from Quebec to Detroit. In point form, record what happened along the way, where it happened, ie. sailing huge waves in a canoe on Lake Ontario.
